Transition-Age Youth (TAY) Civil Legal Practice Exchange

The TAY Civil Legal Practice Exchange (TAY PX) is a practice support network for civil legal advocates across California that convenes regularly to share resources, exchange technical assistance, develop referral pathways, and identify recurring issues related to the civil legal needs of transition-age young people (roughly ages 16-25). The TAY PX provides monthly training, bi-monthly workshops, bi-monthly office hours (a more interactive, collaborative space to brainstorm and problem-solve around recurring issues in TAY advocacy work across the state), a listserv, and a dedicated resource library. We've found that membership in the TAY PX is especially useful for newer attorneys and attorneys interested in learning more about the unique civil legal needs of transition-age young people. Contact Marisa Lopez-Scott, Senior Attorney, at mlopez@ylc.org for more information or to join.

About YLC

Youth Law Center (YLC) is a nonprofit legal advocacy organization that has worked for over four decades to transform foster care and juvenile justice systems across the nation so every child and youth can thrive. YLC's advocacy aims to ensure children and youth are not only protected from harm and dangerous conditions in systems but also receive the support, opportunities, and love they need to grow up healthy and happy. We pursue these goals through child-focused, research-informed advocacy strategies including impact litigation, policy reform, media advocacy, collaborative system-change projects, training and advice, and public education.
